

A Brief History of Arroyo Grande

The earliest inhabitants of the Arroyo Grande valley were the Chumash Indians. The first Europeans to see the area were the crew of Portuguese explorer Juan Rodríguez Cabrillo. In 1862 the township of Arroyo Grande was established, and a railroad depot was later built in 1882. The city was incorporated in 1911 on July 10. Arroyo Grande was struck in 1914 by flash floods which destroyed much of the town.

City Government

Arroyo Grande is run by the city council and mayor who serves on the city council. The City Council consists of five members elected at-large, on a nonpartisan basis. Residents elect the mayor and four council members, making each accountable to the entire citizenry. Council members serve four-year overlapping terms. The mayor is directly elected and serves a two-year term. The City Council establishes city policies, approves ordinances and resolutions, makes land use decisions, approves agreements and contracts, and hears appeals on decisions made by city staff or advisory committees.

Why would I want to visit Arroyo Grande?

Arroyo Grande is very close to the shore of the Pacific ocean with its calm beaches and warm weather is one of the most fun places to visit. The Comedic stylings of the Great American Vaudeville are very appealing or The Clark Center For Performing Arts for those with more Dramatic tastes. Personally I enjoy Lightning Joes Guitar Heaven For a Guitarist and Music Lover like myself this place truly is Heaven. And learning of the Historic El Camino Real trail this historic 600-mile California Mission Trail, connecting the former Alta California's 21 missions (along with a number of sub-missions), 4 presidios, and 3 pueblos, stretching from Mission San Diego de Alcalá in San Diego in the south to Mission San Francisco Solano in Sonoma in the north.
